Old Bell Still "Hangs" Around M.H.S.

For many years the old bell sounded the starting of school. The white frame school house was built in 1884 on a lot just west of the present building. The bell was housed on the roof and Mrs. Otto (Clara) Rasmussen remembers even as a child the bell had a rich tone sounding like a church bell.

When the brick school was constructed in 1913, the bell was placed on the new roof and still peeled out the start of school. The frame school was moved northwest of Marquette. It was converted into a granary which still stands today.

After an automatic bell system was installed, the old bell rang only to signal a ball game victory. In 1977 it was removed from the roof because the wood tower was rotting. It currently is located in the vestibule of the new edition.

At the present time the school board is considering plans for a new bell tower on the front school lawn. The old bell has weathered the seasons of time well. It represents a rich heritage that deserves a place of prominence - a reminder of the past; yet its presence gives a promise for the youth of the future.

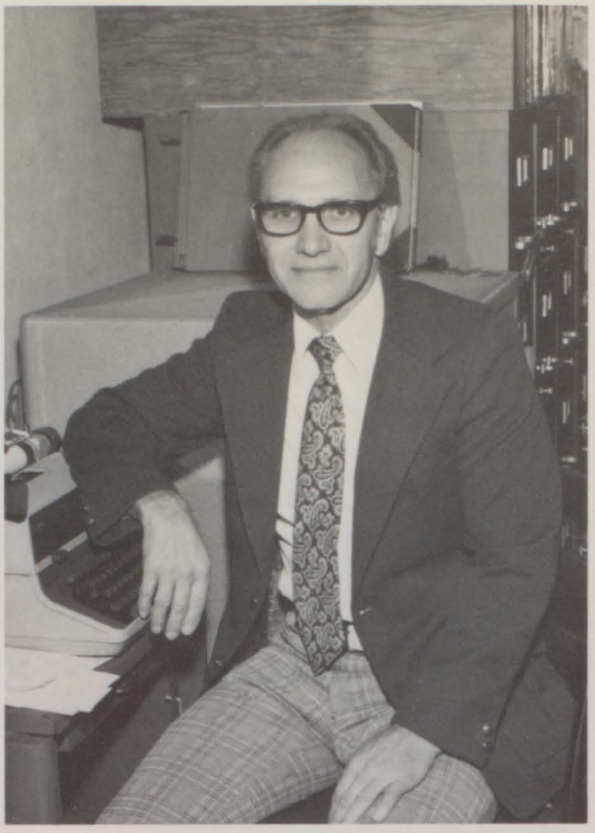
Faculty & Administration

Association Officers: Steve Jacobsen, Vice-President; Marcia Pierson, Treasurer; Carl Abele, President; Marlene Mullens, Secretary.



Melvin Zichek, Superintendent.

Administrative Takes the Lead

School Board Members - standing: Dr. Melvin Zichek, Donald Peterson, Alvin Rahrs, Ron Andersen. Sitting: Elmer Jacobsen, Barbara Dietrich, Kenneth Danhauer.

The School Board serves as the governing body of the school. It makes and enforces policies to help the school operate efficiently and to the benefit of all. The School Board meets the first Monday of each month. They also have special meetings to discuss matters of importance which cannot wait until the next scheduled meeting. The six members are elected by the school district for four-year terms and they can be elected to an indefinite number of terms. Elmer Jacobsen is the current School Board president.

The Teachers Association is affiliated with the NSEA. It is the teachers' voice in school affairs. Participation in the NSEA at the local, state and national levels provides many opportunities for professional growth of the members.

LaVonne Hutsell works hard at her secretarial and receptionist duties. This is her first year at MHS.

Linley Berck, custodian, finds plenty of jobs to keep him busy every day.

Staff Helps to Keep Students Happy

LaVonne Hutsell, secretary, helps to keep the school running smoothly. She sells and records lunch tickets and keeps food inventories for reports in addition to general office duties.

Linley Berck is a familiar face. He was hired in 1965 and has been at MHS every year since with the exception of 75-76. His duties range from mopping floors to painting to plowing snow to mowing grass.

Alvena Erb is another essential person. She has been with MHS since 1963 when she was hired as a first grade teacher. Now the librarian, she takes care of both elementary and high school libraries.

With two new cooks this year, Connie Sailors and Corana Culver, the students are enjoying a variety of new meals. The cooks plan menus, order groceries and prepare meals for approximately 135 people.

Alvena Erb, librarian, keeps books in top shape.

Bus drivers, Nancy Nunn and Shirley Beck, make sure the students arrive safely.

Corana Culver and Connie Sailors spend their time cooking meals for students as well as for their own families.

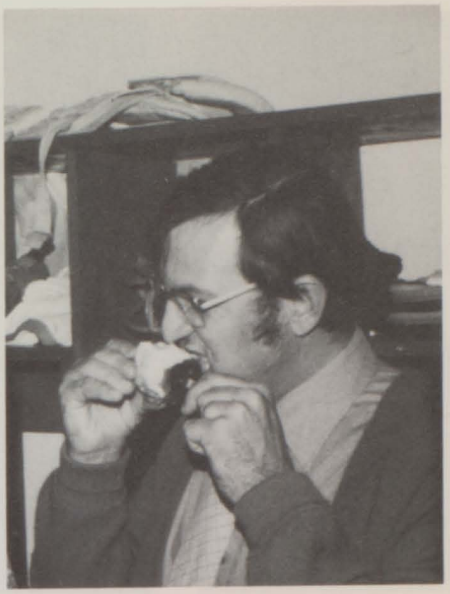
Jessica Abele: "You mean I can't try out for cheerleader this year?"



Mr. Jacobsen sneaks into the locker room for a snack.

Roxane Andersen: "Watch out or I'll blow the whistle on you!"

Julie Kauffman, Rhonda Nutzman and Barb Skidmore decide to try out a new religious cult.

Mrs. Bobbie Abele: "I was never told by my professors there would be days like THIS."

Sue Moderow, Michelle Ellenwood, Lori Zikmund, Ellen Britton, Wanda Olson: "Isn't this how Michelangelo got his start?"

Rhonda Nutzman: "Help! I'm being held prisoner."

Seniors Craig Danhauer, Greg Ellenwood and Mike Danhauer find "hitting the books" to be very tiring during first semester.

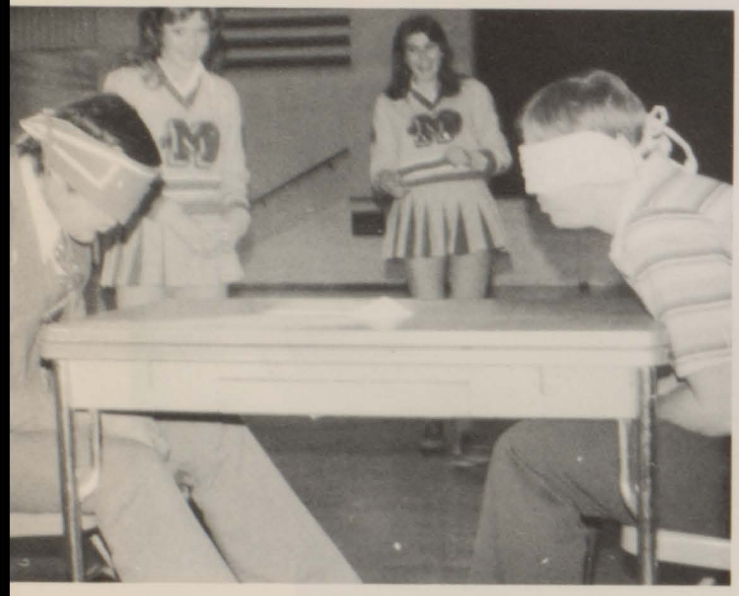
Personal Views on Life at MHS

School is for the birds!

Bill Carlson: "You mean to tell me it's only Monday? Are you sure?"

Julie Danhauer: "Oh, Study Hall is my favorite class!"



Coach Steve Jacobsen and Coach Doug Gilson: Sometimes it helps to have a lot of hot air around here!

Julie Kauffman to Troy Gustafson: "It's nice to have classmates you can count on."

Bill Carlson: "I'll do one hundred of these things if you will just promise not to take me back to Trigonometry class!"

Doris Peterson and Nina Halverson: Eat your hearts out. We get OUT in May!

1977 Homecoming A Success

"Nobody does it better" was the theme for the 1977 Homecoming.

To help set the mood for this year's homecoming, grades 7-12 decorated the walls of the gym. Seniors took first place while the sophomores took second place.

Mark Jacobsen gave the welcome followed by M. C. Rick Richter who introduced skits put on by various school organizations.

At halftime of the football game with Hordville, the royalty and attendents were escorted onto the football field in Corvettes. A dance was held in the gym following the game.

First Attendants - Doris Peterson and Greg Ellenwood.

Second Attendants - Chris Christensen and Craig Danhauer.

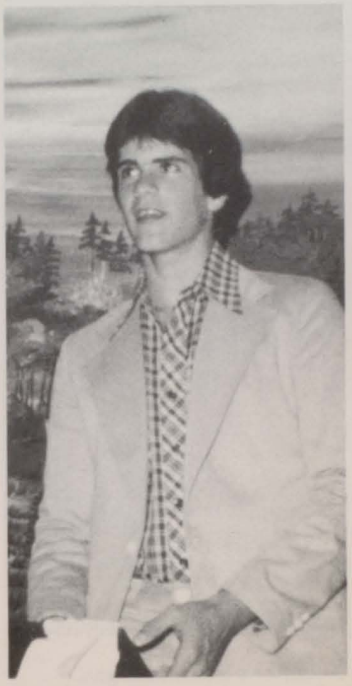
Junior-Senior Banquet Holds Fond Memories

Juniors and seniors are both waiting for the show to begin.

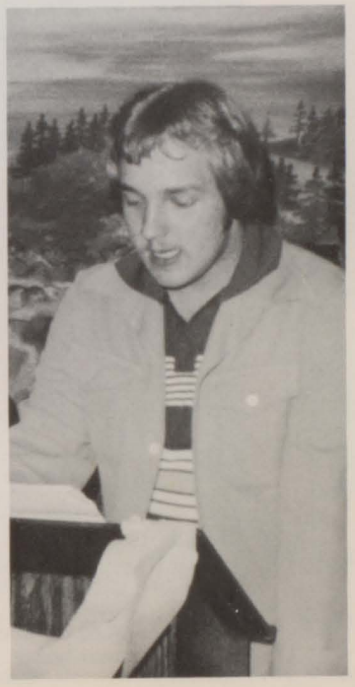
The theme "On the Threshold of a Dream" and pastel colors set the mood for the 1978 Junior-Senior Banquet which was held April 27 at the Bonanza Sirloin Pit in Grand Island.

Mark Jacobsen welcomed the faculty and seniors while the response was given by Greg Ellenwood. The invocation and benediction was given by Dr. Melvin Zichek.

Fond memories of the evening will remain in the hearts of all juniors and seniors.



Master of Ceremonies Randy Nutzman kept students and teachers laughing with his jokes.



A look into the future was taken with the reading of the senior prophecy by Mark Harris.

Bill Carlson read "The Last Will and Testimony" for the 1978 Marquette Senior Class.

Miss Deb Harris based her speech on the banquet theme as she addressed the audience.

The teachers looked as though they enjoyed the program as well as the food.

Mark Jacobsen: "That wasn't very funny!"

Gordon and Mark Harris provided the entertainment by singing and playing their guitars.

Mr. Tom Luff acted as Master of Ceremonies.

Mr. Steve Jacobsen presents football awards.

Mr. Terry Novak shares his words of wisdom.

Athletes Honored at Banquet

"We Are The Champions" was the theme which was chosen for the 1978 Athletic Banquet. The gym was decorated in blue and gold streamers and featured two revolving wheels of blue streamers and glitter stars.

The meal was served at 6:30 and at 7:30 Master of Ceremonies Mr. Tom Luff started the program. Mr. Terry Novak, a senior basketball player at the University of Nebraska, was the featured guest speaker of the evening.

Football, basketball, volleyball and track coaches presented awards and letters to the athletes. Miss Debra Waterman, Spirit Club Sponsor, announced the cheerleaders for next year - Julie Danhauer head cheerleader, Jackie Hutsell, Brenda Dietrich, Rhonda Nutzman, Julie Kauffman, Krista Sailors and Linda Johnston. The program was concluded with the benediction by Dr. Melvin Zichek.

The Red Tagg Disco from Kearney played for the dance that followed the program.

Mr. Terry Novak, the guest speaker of the evening, tells how h basketball career began.

Terry Novak was happy to sign autographs.

Chorus Rises to New Heights

Mr. Larry Decker followed the proverb "Practice Makes Perfect" and the chorus put in many long hours to perfect the sound produced.

The chorus performed at the Soup Supper, and at Christmas and Spring Concerts. They attended the vocal clinic in York and District Music Contest in Fairmont. At District Contest they received a II rating. Also performing at Contest were the sextet, receiving a II; the duet and quartet each getting a III and soloists Doris Peterson and Roxane Andersen each receiving a II.

Doris Peterson, Jackie Hutsell, Brenda Dietrich and Daryl Harney represented the chorus at Doane College Music Festival. The chorus sang at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

Chorus members Marvin Vanosdall, Daryl Harney, Kevin Herrold and Don Meyer practice their parts diligently in order to achieve perfection.

Sherlock Holmes, we need your help. Solve this mystery!

Although the band was small this year they worked hard to get a good sound. They played at home football and basketball games and marched in the Harvest of Harmony and Central City Veterans Day Parades. They showed their talents by performing at the Soup Supper, Christmas Concert, CRC Instrumental Clinic and Pre-Contest Concert. In the District Music Contest they were rated at III.

B-Band, which consists of grade school and junior high, held a Mid-Winter Concert in which they performed.

Stage Band proved themselves when they received a Superior rating at the District Music Contest. They attended a Stage Band Festival at Doane and performed at the Soup Supper, Christmas, Mid-Winter and Spring Concerts.

Randy Nutzman, Miss Debra Waterman and Miss Deb Harris are to break each other's balloons at a pep rally.

Although the group was small, there was a lot of spirit shown at games. The Pep Band helped to promote enthusiasm at all home football and basketball games. This year a merit system was added to encourage attendance.

Concessions were provided by the Spirit Club at all home games which helped to increase the treasury. Another money-making project consisted of selling the All-American fund raising kits. The money made from these projects helped to sponsor Homecoming activities and the Athletic Banquet.

Twenty-Four Members Make Up 77-78 M-Club

M-Club sponsors for this year were the coaches, Steve Jacobsen, Doug Gilson, Carl and Bobbie Abele.

Among the M-Club sponsored activities was a fun night for which a one dollar admission was charged. The fun night included games, free throw shooting, horse, and other competitive events in which all could participate.

Membership for this year included both boys and girls. The M-Club discussed and made plans to adopt a constitution for the giving of letters and the requirements for membership in the club.

Annual Staff Works Throughout 77-78

In September the nine-member annual staff began the task of planning the annual and selling ads to help pay for it. Many long hours were spent selling ads in Aurora, Central City and Grand Island as well as Marquette. Next they designed layouts and took pictures.

By March 17 half of the annual was completed. The sponsor, editor and co-editor took the completed pages to Marceline, Missouri and while there toured the publishing plant.

At awards convocation each member of the staff received an "M" award and an annual pin in recognition of their efforts.

A new idea was tried this year. Upon arrival of the annuals an autographing party was held at the school. The annuals were distributed and refreshments were served.

Honor convocation was held at 2:30 pm in the gym with all students in attendance. Athletic awards for football, volleyball, boys and girls basketball, boys and girls track were made by respective coaches.

Musical awards were presented by Mr. Larry Decker. Mr. Decker also announced senior Ron Dickinson as the recipient of the most valuable musician award. This award was based on a vote by fellow musicians.

College scholarships for Ron Dickinson and Greg Ellenwood were announced by Mr. Steve Jacobsen.

Mrs. LaVonne Hutsell presented awards to the annual staff members and announced next year's annual staff.

The convocation was concluded with the announcement of the 1978 National Honor Society members from Marquette High School.

Busy Year for F.H.A.

F.H.A. Week was held February 12-18 with the girls doing something thoughtful for others as well as for themselves. Other activities accomplished throughout the year included Family Craft Night, a pizza party, a box social, play school, and having adoptive grandparents from Central City's Long Term. Money raising projects included a slave auction, and salad supper.

Many of the girls attended District and State Conventions this year. An Honor Chapter Award was received by the local Chapter at the 77 State Convention.

Cubs Battle to the End

Volleyball girls didn't capture a winning season but they didn't give up their enthusiasm either. The Cubs finished the season with a record of two wins and nine losses. They managed to defeat Gresham and Monroe in regular season games. The Junior Varsity volleyball girls also won two games, defeating Monroe and Benedict.

This year's volleyball team consisted of 13 players, 5 of whom were returning lettermen. Starters were senior Roxane Andersen; Juniors Julie Danhauer, Jackie Hutsell, Brenda Dietrich and Sophomore Rhonda Nutzman. Chris Christensen and Barb Skidmore switched off for the other opening assignment.

The girls enjoyed working with a new coach, Mrs. Bobbie Abele and though the struggles were many and the rewards were few, they learned that having fun at the games and showing sportsmanship were important, too.

Carl Abele coached the 7th and 8th grade girls to a perfect season. Not only did the girls win all their regular season games, they defeated Shelby to win the Conference Championship.

Cubs Aim for Teamwork

This year the Cub basketball girls depended on teamwork for their wins. They ended the season having three wins and nine losses. Defeated teams included McCool Junction, Gresham and Giltner.

The starters were senior Roxane Andersen; juniors Brenda Dietrich, Jackie Hutsell, Julie Danhauer. Sophomores Rhonda Nutzman and Barb Skidmore traded off for the other opening position. Sophomore Julie Kauffman also saw alot of varsity action.

Junior Barb Klawonn, sophomore Mary Johnston and freshmen Michelle Ellenwood and Lori Zikmund supported the junior varsity team and backed the varsity team when necessary. Student managers Linda Johnston and Krista Sailors also helped the team.

The girls learned that lots of practice and working together as a team are the most important elements in a winning team.

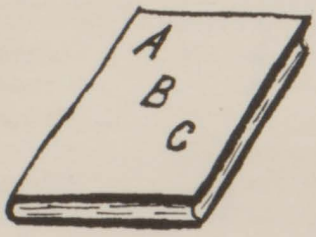
Graduation day: Dr. Melvin Zichek presents a diploma to Jennifer Huebert.

Kindergarten—A New Experience



A small class of nine found school a new experience. Mrs. Jane Dadey helped the class learn the alphabet. For each letter they showed their artistic talent by making such things as brown paper bag Indian vests, butterflies, tissue ghosts and an octopus.

Graduation day was May 8, 1978. The class presented a program of songs about toys. Each song was coordinated with hand and feet movements. Dr. Melvin Zichek gave each child a stuffed monkey, a graduation balloon and a diploma.

First and Second Grades

Miss Barbara Shroyer, Teacher

First and Second graders shared several subjects and experiences this school year. A Halloween party was held and at Christmas Time the students spent the last day before vacation baking and decorating cookies. They viewed films, exchanged gifts and enjoyed a surprise visit from Santa. An Easter party was held with students coloring eggs. They joined the Fifth and Sixth graders for a trip to Grand Island visiting Nebraska Veterans' Home, the kennels, KRGI, Stuhr Museum and Fairacres Dairy.

Special class room projects included making papier maché animals for a science project. Life size cutouts were made for a self-concept study. These were stuffed with newspapers and hung from wires giving the appearance of dancing children. During a study of nutrition they toured the Aurora Pizza Hut. The Second graders also presented a TV show and two plays for the First graders.

Third and Fourth Grades

An emphasis was placed on learning rather than on grading. The students were to correct what was incorrect.

Tonja Jacobsen received national recognition when her article on chickens appeared in the Scholastic News Explorer.

Field trips were used for emphasis in social studies. The trips included a Halloween presentation to an Aurora Rest Home, a trip to Atlantic Homes in Central City, a trip to the Fairacres Dairy in Grand Island and a historical tour of the immediate area.

Fifth and Sixth Grades

Mrs. Marcia Pierson

The 5th and 6th grades began with 23 students but each class had one student move away.

Valentine and Halloween parties were planned and held by an elected Game Committee. The 5th and 6th graders attended the Christmas Skating party sponsored by the Student Council.

At Christmas time they visited the Plainsman Museum to view the exhibit of Christmas trees and tour the museum. The bulletin board was decorated with mirror art using each student's picture. They gave these as gifts to their parents.

During the study of Southwest Indians all the students worked on sandpaintings. They also had an embryo study with the 3 & 4 graders.

Junior High— Games, Goals, Graduation

Seventh graders had an interesting year as they started junior high. For the first time they experienced participating in school ball games. Money making projects for future expenses included raking fall leaves, conducting a bake sale and selling concessions at a volleyball game.

On January 21 the eighth grade class invited the seventh graders to enjoy a fun evening at the York Community Center. Afterwards they went to the Pizza Hut for supper.

One of the jr hi goals was achieved on April 28 when both classes went to Omaha on a field trip. They visited the WOW radio station, Areospace Museum, Henry Dorley Zoo, Union Pacific Historical Museum, The Old Market and concluded their trip at the Westroads Shopping Center.

Graduation was the high light of the 8th graders. "Making Our Dreams Come True" was chosen as the class motto. A white rose, blue ribbons and tissue flowers carried out the colors of ice blue and white. Graduation night was May 11, 1978. Mrs. Beulah Widga was 8th grade sponsor.

Freshmen Wonder, Wish, Wait for "81"

High School is a new experience and this year's freshmen class seem to be enjoying that experience. They're doing a good job under the leadership of their class sponsor, Miss Debra Waterman.

Money-making projects to help finance upcoming events included a box and bar candy sale. They also had a bake sale at a Jr. Hi basketball game.

Tradition dictates that the freshmen give a party for the seniors. The Community Center in York was chosen as the site for the April party.

The sophomores had a car wash-bake sale on April 15 to boost their funds. They placed second for their decorated wall at Homecoming.

April 26 was a big day for the sophs as this was the day they chose their class rings.

Jrs. Laugh, Learn and Look to "79"

Fourteen juniors entered the 77-78 year with hopes and dreams of their last two years at MHS.

Shortly after school began the class worked with the seniors at the chicken house removing chickens and again when the new chickens were moved into the house. Another money-making project was a bake sale during a jr-hi basketball game.

During Homecoming activities the junior class did well by having their wall place third.

The big event for the class was the planning, decorating and hosting the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

Seniors Have Thrills, Thoughts, Tears of "78"

Senior memories included happy thoughts of all the good times they had shared together . . . a state fair trip in September, all the athletic events, music concerts, the Athletic Banquet, Jr. Sr. Banquet, a Freshmen-Senior party, the thrills of a Colorado sneak trip, a senior breakfast and senior luncheons.

As May 10th graduation arrived the thoughts became solemn as the high school days in Marquette drew to an end. Each of the fourteen seniors who had shared so much would now be going separate ways, meeting new friends. Before the final best wishes, good luck and goodbyes were said, a few tears were shed. Even these feelings were shared as a group who had come to know each other well.

Last Layouts! Last Pictures! Last Deadline!!!

And with this final page the 1978 Annual Staff would like to make some acknowledgments.

A thank you to the Aurora News Register for the use of their pictures. A thank you, too, to Troy Gustafson for his art work.

A special thanks goes to Bailey Studio in Grand Island and to LaVern and Steve Fuller for their time and patience in taking the photographs for this year's annual.

And last but not least a thank you to all the advertisers. It was that extra support that helped make possible the use of full-colored pages in this year's annual, something never before used in the "CUB".
